If you work for a living, you may be eligible for the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and you could get up to $6,516 cash when you file your 2010 tax returns.

1 Find a FREE tax preparer.

Well-trained professional tax volunteers are available to help you prepare and file your federal and state income taxes for FREE! The tax preparer will help you determine if you qualify for the federal Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). The EITC refund is based on family size and income and could provide your household with a maximum refund of up to $6,516.

2 You are qualified if: You worked and earned income in 2010 and you have a valid social security number and if your family has	and you earned less than	then you can get up to

No qualifying children	$18,470	$526
One qualifying child	$40,545	$3,508
Two qualifying children	$45,373	$5,791
Three or more qualifying children	$48,362	$6,516

Qualifying and credit amounts are based on a married couple jointly filing their federal and state returns. Alimony and child support do not count towards income.

3 Put your EITC to work for you!

Pay bills, open a savings account, or buy a U.S. Savings Bond for yourself or as a gift! And remember: you'll get a faster refund if you e-file with direct deposit. Ask your tax preparer for information. Keep your money! Avoid costly advance payment offers that reduce your refund.
